

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3315 - HB 3477

February 22, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires at least 10 percent of manufactured homes installed in the state of Tennessee each year be inspected. Current law requires the inspection of at least five percent.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures –

$37,900/One-Time/Fire Prevention Fund
$119,400/Recurring/Fire Prevention Fund

Assumptions:

- A one-time increase in state expenditures for computer equipment ($4,500), inspection equipment ($1,900) and two vehicles ($31,500).
- A recurring increase in state expenditures for the salary and benefits for two new Manufactured Home Inspector 2 positions ($31,560 salary + $10,800 benefits = $42,360 x 2 = $84,720).
- A recurring increase in state expenditures for telephone, supplies and other operational expenses ($22,600) and the cost of leasing and operating two vehicles ($12,100).
